Articles, amendment; filing; recording; change of name; notice; publication.

SECTION 1774. Any corporation organized under this chapter, may at any meeting of its members by a vote of at least the owners of two-thirds of all the stock then outstanding, in case of stock corporations, or at least one-half of the members of the corporation without stock, unless a greater vote shall be required in its articles, amend its articles of organization so as to modify or enlarge its business or purposes, change its name or location, increase or diminish its capital stock, change its officers, or its directors or provide anything which might have been originally provided in such articles; but no corporation without stock shall change substantially the original purposes of its organization. Such amendments shall be adopted only in accordance with the articles of organization, if a mode of amending the same shall have been therein prescribed. When adopted, duplicate copies of such amendment, with a certificate thereto affixed, signed by the president and secretary, or if none, the corresponding officers, and sealed with the corporate seal, if there be any, stating the fact and date of adoption of such amendment, and, if a stock corporation, the total number of shares voting in favor of such amendment, and if a corporation organized without capital stock, the total number of members and the total vote in favor of such amendment, and that such copy is a true copy of the original, shall be forwarded to the secretary of state, one copy to be filed by him, and the other copy to be returned with certificate of the secretary of state attached, showing the date when such amendment was filed and accepted by the secretary of state, which said copy shall be recorded by the register of deeds of the county in which such corporation is located, within thirty days after filing with the secretary of state, and in case of failure so to do, such officers shall forfeit twenty-five dollars, and the register of deeds shall note on the margin of the record of the original articles, the volume and page where such amendment is recorded, and no amendment shall be of effect until so recorded, and such amendment shall be void until so filed and recorded. The register of deeds shall forthwith transmit to the secretary of state a certificate stating the time when such amendment was recorded and shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents therefor, to be paid by the person presenting such amendment for record. Upon receipt of such certificate the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of amendment. Whenever the corporate name shall be changed the secretary shall publish a notice thereof in a newspaper published at or nearest to the place of location of such corporation for three weeks, and if he shall fail for two months so to do shall forfeit twenty-five dollars. No change of location of any such corporation, if beyond the limits of the county, shall be valid until the articles of organization and all amendments shall have been recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county to which the same shall be changed.

Insurance by married woman of husband, son, or other person; rights of creditors.

SECTION 2347. Any married woman may, in her own name or in the name of a third person as her trustee, with his assent cause to be insured for her sole use the life of her husband, son or other person for any definite period or for the natural life of such person; and any person, whether her husband or not, effecting any insurance on his own life or on the life of another may cause the same to be made payable or assign the policy to a married woman or to any person in trust for her or her benefit, and every such policy, when expressed to be for the benefit of or assigned or made payable to any married woman or any such trustee, shall be the sole and separate property of such married woman and shall insure to her separate use and benefit and that of her children, and in case of her surviving the period or term of such policy the amount of the insurance shall be payable to her or her trustee for her own use and benefit, free from the control, disposition or claims of her husband and of the person effecting or assigning such insurance and from the claims of their respective representatives and creditors. But if the annual premium on any such policy shall exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars and is paid by any person with intent to defraud his creditors an amount equal to the premiums so paid in excess of said sum, with interest thereon, shall insure to the benefit of such creditors, subject, however, to the statute of limitations. The amount of any such insurance may be made payable in case of the death of such married woman before the period at which it comes due, to her children or to their guardian for their use, if under age, or to any other person as shall be provided in the policy. In such case the receipt of such married woman or of such children, or of their guardian if minors, shall discharge the insurance corporation from all further liability therefor. The provisions of this section shall apply to all insurance on lives effected before the passage of these statutes.

Section 2347 is referred to in section 2918-19.

2347b (Ch. 15, 1903.)

Married woman may assign policy; consent of person effecting insurance.

Any married woman may, with the written consent of the person effecting the insurance, assign, encumber or dispose of any right, title or interest she may have in, to or under any policy of life insurance, whether on the life of herself or of her husband, or of any other person, and whether such policy be expressed to be for the benefit of or assigned or made payable to such married woman, or any trustee for her, in the same manner and with like effect as if she were unmarried.

The provisions of this act shall apply to all insurance on lives, whether effected before or after the passage of this act, but shall not apply to assignments thereof heretofore made.

ACTIONS AGAINST INSURANCE COMPANIES.

2609a

Joinder as defendants.

SECTION 2609a. In actions upon a policy or policies insuring property against loss or damage by fire, lightning, hail, cyclone or other casualty, the plaintiff may join as parties defendant any or all the insurance companies liable for the loss or any part thereof, and all the issues shall be tried at the same time and by the same jury or by the court, if the action is triable thereby, and the verdict or finding shall fix the amount for which each defendant is liable; or the court may, in its discretion, direct the jury to return successive verdicts, or make separate findings, so that all issues may be determined at the same trial. If the trial is by a jury the court may instruct the jury upon one or more of the issues, and, after verdict thereon, instruct upon other issues until they are all disposed of. If the issues are found in favor of the plaintiff and he is entitled to judgment on the verdict or findings a separate judgment shall be rendered against each defendant for the sum for which it is found to be liable, together with the proportion of the costs for which it is liable, which proportion shall bear the same ratio to the whole amount of the costs as the amount of its liability bears to the total sum recovered by the plaintiff from all the defendants, and in addition to such costs its proportion of the necessary disbursements made by the plaintiff, calculated on the same basis.

the other by him immediately mailed, postage prepaid, addressed to said company at its office designated in its articles of incorporation on file in the office of the said secretary of state, *and such service shall be * * * deemed and treated as personal service on such corporation.*

When a forfeiture is imposed, not exceeding a specified sum or when it is not less than one sum or more than another, the action may be brought for the highest sum specified; and judgment may be rendered for such sum as the court or jury shall assess or determine to be proportionate to the offense.

3300Forfeiture, action by district attorney or attorney general; where paid.

SECTION 3300. All forfeitures imposed by chapter 89 may be sued for by the district attorney of the county in which the insurance company or any of its agents mentioned in said chapter may be located or reside, or by the attorney general. If the action be brought by the district attorney one-half of the forfeiture, when recovered, shall be paid into the county treasury
